Introducing the 2010 Sponsor Hotels
September 29, 2009

PITTSBURGH-PA The National Club Softball Association has officially signed its five sponsor hotels for the 2010 NCSA Spring Training Showcase.

With Tampa, FL being the major market host yet again for the event, hotel sponsorship opportunities were in fierce competition. The NCSA is proud to have the following five hotel sponsors for the 2010 NCSA Spring Training Showcase, The Official Host Hotel of the 2010 Spring Training Showcase: Red Rose Inn and Suites and our four Sponsor Hotels: Mainsail Suites, Homewood Suites, The Renaissance Tampa, and Chase Suite Hotel.

“I am very excited about the upcoming 2010 NCSA Spring Training Showcase and the involvement of our five sponsor hotels. This season’s Spring Training Showcase is not only going to raise the bar on the success of our event, but the quality of our outstanding accommodation sponsors,” said Savannah Harp, Director of Spring Training Operations for CollClubSports.

The diversity among our sponsor hotels makes it easy for our competing club softball and baseball teams to get exactly what they want out of their experience in Tampa. With unbeatable one bedroom room rates from the $69 per night, Homerun Rate, at the Official Host Hotel, Red Rose Inn and Suites, to the $79 per night rate at Chase Suites which offers all villa-style suites. Chase Suites also features a two bedroom/two bath loft style suite for only $99 per night and is located in Tampa Bay at Rocky Point.

In the past, triple and quad suites have been in high demand. Mainsail and Homewood Suites do have these options available. With rates starting at $129 per night these suites are sure to fit the needs of any team. The very popular Mainsail Suites Hotel offers a unique experience with suites that include a full kitchen, dining and living room. The suite style living continues at Homewood Suites where the rate includes a hot breakfast buffet daily and a manager’s reception Monday through Thursday evenings.

If it is a full service hotel that you are looking for then the Renaissance Hotel at the Tampa International Plaza is what you are looking for, with rates starting at $99 per night. The Renaissance is located in the heart of the International shopping and entertainment plaza with 14 full service restaurants, two sports bars and a martini bar with live band nightly.

The Tampa Bay Sports Commission and CollClubSports have solidified their 2-year agreement to host the 2010 and 2011 NCSA Spring Training Showcase in Plant City, FL. With this new commitment the possibilities for outstanding accommodations are endless. The NCSA is looking forward to working with our Sponsor hotels to create a winning atmosphere for the community and our teams.
