2019-2020 TEAM PREVIEW GUIDE

Team Name: Sacramento State Softball Club

Mascot: Hornets

Captain(s)/Coach(es): Captains: Jackie Plaza team president and Daryn Katuski treasurer, and Rashad Baadqir Head Coach

2018-2019 Performance:

- Record: 11-3
- Final Conference Ranking/Postseason Results: 2nd in Pacific Central Conference
- Notables: Team led the conference in runs scored, runs allowed, runs per game, steals per game, and hits

Number of Returning Players: 7

Biggest Rival: UC Davis

2019-2020 Season Outlook: After a disappointing ending to a 2019 playoff bid, the Hornets will be looking to rebound in big fashion by returning a strong roster of players led by shortstop Daryn Katsuki, catcher/third base Sara Knight, and outfielder's Jackie Plaza and Sierra Silva all of whom who will be on the watch list for All-Conference and All-American teams along with a new group of incoming highly talented players joining the team. Sacramento State is seeking its first top 25 national NCSA ranking in program history. With a strong non-conference and conference regular season schedule ahead, the Hornets are expected to challenge again for the Pacific Central Conference title, with regional playoff and national championship aspirations in 2020. If anything proves as dominate as the Hornets were in 2019 with 3 losses by 1 run each game, and a chance a to win or tie in those losses then the Hornets should be in good shape to make some noise in 2019-2020.
