2023-24 Season Outlook:

As we start the season in a new conference, we are looking to compete against some strong teams who made NSCA tournament appearances last season. With many returning players, we have a solid foundation we are hoping to build on. We are looking to strengthen our pitching rotation and add some reliable catchers to our roster. Adding a consistent 3rd baseman and another 1st baseman will help solidify our defense. We, overall, have a strong line up of hitters, but struggled to consistently put together good at-bats last season. Focusing on making hard contact and stringing together hits will help us produce more runs and succeed offensively.

Manager Quote:

We have a strong group of girls returning who will set the tone for the season. There are a couple holes we need to fill, but the talents and personalities currently on the team put us in a position to succeed and play well against some tough teams.
