

THE SAVANNAH AHRENS AWARD

HONORING A NCSA STUDENT-ATHLETE WHO HAS DISTINGUISHED THEMSELVES THROUGH DEMONSTRATED ACTS OF SPORTSMANSHIP AND ETHICAL BEHAVIOR

The NCSA would like to recognize a student-athlete who has distinguished themselves through demonstrated acts of sportsmanship and ethical behavior.

Nomination criteria (one or more of the following):

- Nominees act positively affected a community's sports culture and game environment.
- Nominee displayed act(s) of integrity that go beyond the sport's playing rules and etiquette.
- Nominee made decisions that while difficult or unpopular, were respectful of the game/opponent.
- Nominee put others needs ahead of their own.

Please Note: Multiple individuals may be considered if involved in the same act(s)

Nominee must be a member of an NCSA team during the 2023-2024 academic year.

Testimonial submissions limited to 500 words maximum. Testimonial should be sent to Christian Smith at Christian.Smith@CollClubSports.com by Sunday, July 14th.

KASSIDY PRATT

2023 SAVANNAH AHRENS
SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD WINNER

2023 NCSA Savannah Ahrens Award Recipient, Kassidy Pratt from Sacred Heart University