Manager Quote: "Providence College is entering its fifth official year in the NCSA and we have a lot to look forward too. We have strong returners who I know will help guide the incoming players to a successful season. We have tryouts in a few weeks and so many girls have already reached out expressing interest, this can be difficult coming from a small school in New England. Due to the founder of Providence College Club Softball, girls who were not ready to stop playing after high school are able to

Players to Watch:

Alex Diaz, Sofia Hargrave, Emily Padegimas, Miles Parra

New additions:

We hold try-outs on 9/3 and 9/5. We're primarily looking to add one or two more pitchers, corner infielders, and catchers to our roster and any other valuable players who come along. .

Biggest Rival:

I wouldn't say we have any rivals, but we played some good games against Providence College last semester, so they're a good team we look forward to playing again. We also were swept by UConn last semester, so we hope to go out and play some better games against them, too.

Best Player Nickname:

N/A

2024-25 Season Outlook:

We look forward to another season in the New England South Conference. We want to strengthen our team and play better against some good teams this season. We lost three seniors at first base, catcher, and outfield, so we look to fill those spots with some new players who can help us defensively and offensively. We have a good foundation heading into the year and are excited to play.
